Richard Moon Presents:

Frances Perkins,
Breaking the Glass Ceiling

Saturday,
March 21, 2020
11:00 a.m.

Frances Perkins, U.S. Secretary of Labor from 1933 to 1945, the longest serving in that position, and the first woman appointed to the U.S. Cabinet.

Celebrate the Women’s History Month and the passing of the 19th Amendment by listening to the story of Frances Perkins - the first women to serve as a presidential cabinet member (Secretary of Labor!)

As Secretary of Labor in the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Administration:

- Lead the Civilian Conservation Corps
- Wrote the first draft of the Social Security Act of 1935.
- Instrumental in giving us Workers Compensation, Unemployment Insurance, Child Labor Laws, and the Minimum Wage

Join Richard Moon for another one of his stories that “Educate and Entertain” — and CELEBRATE Frances Perkins, a woman who quietly dedicated her life to serve others.

Light refreshments will be served. No registration is necessary. All ages are invited.

Richard Moon has presented historical programs for the Passaic County Historical Society, the North Jersey Highlands Historical Society, the Carlstadt Historical Society as well as Wayne Public Library, North Haledon Public Library, Wanaque Public Library, plus a history of Camp Midvale and of the Wanaque Reservoir Wall presented at our own Ringwood Public Library.
